

A free, open and vibrant press and all other forms of media, is essential for an informed and educated citizenry. The attempt to deregulate controls on ownership of the media threatens our right to full and divergent points of view. Please do not proceed with your plans to deregulate. Thank you.